Final Thoughts:

Now that your test is over, take a moment to thank the Lord for His direction and guidance and ask Him to give you a submissive heart and a humble attitude toward whatever gift or gifts He has given to you.

Also, remember that whatever gift or gifts we have has already been given to us the moment we became believers in Christ. Our ability to discover these gifts is based on our maturity in Christ, our continual usage of these gifts, and the effectiveness and joy we have experienced when using them. Since we uncover gifts gradually throughout our Christian experience, you will want to review the gifts often and perhaps take the test again in the future and compare it with what you have discovered at this point.

Further Instructions:

Record your answers to the test on the answer sheet. Only record the "yes" answers. On the profile sheet mark the number of "yes" answers in each category. This profile is to be used as an INDICATOR of your spiritual gifts.
